	Welsh Government Visits: October – December 2023	8

1. Introduction

The Culture, Communications, Welsh Language, Sport, and International Relations Committee has a broad remit covering a wide range of areas. In March 2022, the Committee noted its intention to conduct regular monitoring of international activity undertaken by Welsh Ministers as part of its strategy and priorities for the Sixth Senedd.

This monitoring report is intended to provide Members of the Committee with an update on key policy developments related to the Committee's international relations remit. This includes relevant statements made by the Welsh and UK Governments, as well as public bodies, delivery partners and stakeholders. Relevant publications from Senedd Research will also be included in the report.

The report covers the period September 2023 – December 2023.

2. International

This section summarises key developments covered by the Welsh Government's International Strategy and other relevant updates.

Key developments

Scottish Government's "feminist approach to international relations"

In November 2023, the Scottish Government published its position paper on the scope and guiding principles of its feminist approach to international relations. It said:

"a feminist approach for Scotland will leverage all aspects of Scotland's international policy to advance gender equality and the rights of women, girls and marginalised groups."

Wales in France 2023

The Welsh Government outlined activities which took place around the Rugby World Cup during September and October, as part of Wales in France 2023. Ministerial visits included the Deputy Minister for Arts, Sport and Tourism, Minister for Finance and Local Government, and the First Minister.

Wales in India 2024

The First Minister has confirmed that 2024 will be the year of Wales in India, with a focus on, "...developing trade and investment links, soft power and NHS health links".

Welsh Government to update Nation of Sanctuary in 2024

During an update on Nation of Sanctuary on 19 September 2023, the Minister for Social Justice said the Welsh Government would consult on the plan in December 2023, before publishing the refreshed plan in 2024. In response to an oral question on 13 December 2023, the Minister said:

"we will shortly publish our 2023 nation of sanctuary report [...] We are currently undertaking work to refresh our 'Nation of Sanctuary—Refugee and Asylum Seeker Plan' and we'll be engaging those directly affected by our work in the coming weeks."

The Minister also attended the Safety, Security and Migration Interministerial Group, noting that she:

“expressed my disappointment that the vote by the Senedd to withhold consent to the Illegal Migration Bill was not considered by UK Government.”

She emphasised the Welsh Government's commitment to being a Nation of Sanctuary.

Welsh traditions set to be formally recognised as UK joins UNESCO Convention

The UK Government confirmed its intention to ratify the 2003 UNESCO Convention for Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage, launching a consultation seeking the public's views on how to implement the Convention across the UK. This action will enable communities in Wales to nominate traditions such as the Mari Lwyd and St David's Day celebrations for inclusion in a new register of UK cultural heritage. The UK Government said it has and will continue to work with the devolved governments to implement the convention and collate the register, which is expected to open for nominations next year.

Scotland-Türkiye meeting breach of protocol, says UK Foreign Secretary

Following a meeting between Scotland's First Minister, Humza Yousaf, and President of Türkiye, Recep Tayyip Erdogan, UK Foreign Secretary, David Cameron, issued a letter which said the meeting breached protocols on Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office (FCDO) support to devolved government ministers' overseas visits. This was due to no UK official being present at the meeting. Lord Cameron said FCDO support would be withdrawn if subsequent breaches occur.

Counsel General pushes for Intergovernmental Ministerial Group on International Relations

The Counsel General issued a statement on his attendance at the fifth meeting of the Inter-Ministerial Standing Committee (IMSC) on 19 October 2023. As part of the discussion relating to international issues and the International Development White Paper, the Counsel General pressed for further consideration be given to an Inter-Ministerial Group for international relations. The IMSC agreed to consider how to ensure international matters are appropriately considered in the Intergovernmental Relations system, including through ministerial level engagement. It said it would return to the issue.
