Question	Answer
01	Yes I think a short definition should be included in the Bill so that the contents are clearer.
02	Yes I think it should include the both disorders so that support is given to as many people as possible.
03	Yes
04	Yes I believe the Welsh Government should have extra power to make sure the strategy of the Bill is followed in the correct way.
05	It seems a long time but perhaps they need that amount of time to make sure the strategy is correct.
06	They could write the guidance at the same time as the strategy.
08	I think they should use the NICE guidelines, if not they would be different to other parts of the UK.
09	Yes
10	Yes I believe that all of these people should be involved in the assessment so that the best help and support can be provided for the person.
11	I think a member of the family should be involved so that they can give their views.
13	Yes
14	I agree that all of the above information should be collected because each person is different and the more you know about someone equals better help can be provided.
15	It should be written in the guidance.
16	Not sure
17	It should happen all the time. I believe it should happen more often than every three years, at least every two years so that people can understand how someone feels if they have autism spectrum disorder.

18	I believe it will be good for people who want fairness for all. I don't think it will cost me anything but I have worked with young people with Autism and I am glad that they will have as much help as possible.
