Question	Answer
01	Yes
02	No Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD) is complexed and this includes our understanding. I feel that the bill should solely be focused on ASD and be tailored to just this condition. I advise for a separate bill to accommodate these with other neuro development
03	Yes Yes. However, specialist provisions such as Autism Spectrum Cymru (High Street 21) should also be involved. University South Wales, Newport, have a fantastic ASD research provision and these academics should be involved, such as Dr Carmel Conn.
04	Yes
05	A big focus does need to be on adults and raising awareness within the workplace to support a rise of these with ASD in full time employment.
09	Yes
10	Yes
11	Specialists in ASD with DISCO training to support the diagnosis time frame.
12	High academic attainments Being able to "cope" without receiving previously implemented support.
13	Yes
14	Traits Barriers to date in life Biological factors
15	It should be written on the Bill.
16	Yes
17	It should happen all the time.
18	Very good proposals

19	Really positive move but does need a multi disciplinary approach from those with intensive knowledge of ASD
